II INTERNATIONAL CHINESE-BELARUSIAN FORUM ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF PHYSICAL CULTURE AND SPORTS TO BE HELD IN MINSK

Participants will discuss digitalization of sport, inclusion, and sports talent development

On 13–16 October 2026, the Belarusian State University of Physical Culture will host the II International Chinese-Belarusian Forum on the Development of Physical Culture and Sports. The Forum will be attended by representatives of China, Belarus, Russia, Uzbekistan, Azerbaijan, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, and other countries.

The main organizers of the Forum are the Belarusian State University of Physical Culture and Lingnan Normal University. Following the Forum, the Belarusian side plans to publish an electronic collection of materials.

Participation is free. An on-site or online format is available. Registration is open until 1 October 2026.

The Forum will bring together the scientific and practical agendas in the field of physical culture and sports. Participants will discuss the training of sports reserves and high-performance athletes, physical education in the education sector, the development of accessible sport and inclusion, the sports and wellness industry, the training of specialists, as well as the use of digital technologies and artificial intelligence in sport.

The business programme will run for four days and will include scientific sessions, a roundtable discussion "The School of Young Researchers" dedicated to Belarusian-Chinese inter-university cooperation, and a practical intensive course with master classes and training sessions. The central event of the second day will be the plenary session "Priorities of Physical Culture and Sports in the Era of Global Transformations".
